

Chaplain Reflection – Nov. 10-16, 2025

Jeremy Eubanks

There are times when it becomes crystal clear that none of us are immune to the trouble or chaos that is so prevalent in our world. It is in these moments that we need to be reminded of and hold onto the promises of God who throughout both the Old and New Testament declares to never leave us; especially in those tough moments.

Psalm 34:18 The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

And Jesus delivers this message to his disciples in John 16:33 I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.”

We encourage each other then with these words and our mutual presence with each other.

Know that you are supported and cared for. We are praying for your good. If you ever need to contact us, maybe just for a confidential prayer. You can call or text 816-726-7729

That number is manned by the chaplain on call – and when it comes to our phones, it comes from the number I just posted, so we don't have your number unless you want to give it to us.

May you be filled with peace as you fulfill your divine calling.
