Psalm 92:1-5 says It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most high:

To shew forth thy loving kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness
every night,

Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound.

For thou, Lord hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

O Lord, how great are thy works! And thy thoughts are very deep.

What brings joy to you each day? Is it your family? Is it your car?
Is
it the achievements of a loved one? Whatever it is, the Psalmist David
says; It's a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord...Why?
Because all that we are and all that we have has been made possible by an amazing
God who loves each and every one of us.

I'm not saying that you haven't worked hard and "put your time in" not at all, but what I want to remind you is this; James 1:17 says;

Every good and perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

When you reflect upon what this life has given you with a smile, remember "With God all things are possible and you ought to say "thank you" for even the smallest of things.....
