

Kansas City Prepare Your Community for The 2026 FIFA World Cup!

The DHS Office of Intelligence & Analysis, National Threat Evaluation and Reporting (NTER) Program Office works directly with federal, state, local, tribal, territorial and private sector partners to protect the American people and build capacity to recognize the warning signs of terrorism and mass casualty attacks, triage suspicious activity reporting, and address threatening or concerning behaviors before an individual escalates to violence.

NTER strategically engages homeland security partners to advance or fill gaps in their threat identification and mitigation capabilities, safeguard critical infrastructure, and protect the American people.

To learn more about NTER and access available resources, please contact NTER.NSI@hq.dhs.gov or visit www.dhs.gov/nter.

Homeland
Security

SAR Program Support Training

May 11, 8:00am-12:00pm

Kansas City Regional Police Academy

Contact: Sgt. Robert Jorgenson, Robert.Jorgenson@kcpd.org

The NTER office has partnered with the Kansas City Regional Fusion Center provide free Suspicious Activity Reporting (SAR) Program Support training to its staff and partners ahead of FIFA World Cup 2026. Discussion topics for this Law Enforcement Sensitive event will include:

Preparing Analysts and Investigators to Identify, Vet, and Share Suspicious Activity

- Overview of Nationwide SAR Initiative (NSI) and the Functional Standard for sharing threat information
- Review the 16 suspicious indicators and behaviors
 - Real-World Examples
 - Special Event/Mass Gathering focused discussion
- Best practices for assessing and vetting SAR information
- Civil rights and civil liberties protections embedded in the SAR Functional Standard

Resources for Encouraging Bystander Reporting

- Overview of online training and resources to educate homeland partners on threatening or concerning behaviors and where to report them <https://www.dhs.gov/nationwide-sar-initiative-nsi/online-sar-training>
- Overview of available resources from the DHS See Something, Say Something® office, tailored for communities hosting FIFA events
- Link up with NTER Certified Master Trainers in your region to deliver Threat Evaluation and Reporting Overviews to various partners involved in special events

Who should attend?

Attendance is at the discretion of the hosting fusion center; suggest including law enforcement partners such as:

- Fusion center and state, local, tribal, or territorial law enforcement intelligence analysts and investigators
- Law enforcement special event planning, mobile command centers, or emergency management personnel
- FLO/TLO/ILO officers from law enforcement agencies impacted by FIFA events