

Philippians 4:13 “I can endure these things through the one who gives me strength....”

Each day we face challenges of many different types. Some we understand and others we may never understand but with each step try to remember that we are simply vessels of God. Each of us has a purpose ordained and designed by God.

Daily embrace the power of encouragement through words of kindness and support so we can lift each other's spirits.

In a world where negativity tries to overshadow positivity, your encouragement through tough times can be a guiding light to someone in need.

Make a decision when you wake up to be a source of strength to your family, friends, coworkers and above all, to yourself.

Be encouraged today. You have purpose and many people who truly appreciate your presence every day!

Blessed to be a blessing!

Dr. Serita K. Wright Chaplain KCPD South Patrol