DESCRIPTION:

A performance level course developed with support and cooperation from the Department of Homeland Security, National Bomb Squad Commanders Advisory Board, and New Mexico Tech. This course provides front-line law enforcement officers with the skills and knowledge to effectively interdict and respond to an imminent suicide bombing attack (person-borne or vehicle-borne) or a non-suicide attack (involving a vehicle-borne device).

PREREQUISITES:

Must be U.S. Citizens. Must have completed basic law enforcement training and, where applicable, on-the-job training under the supervision of a departmental training officer. Must have demonstrated successful performance as a patrol officer in a U.S., state or local law enforcement agency. Must have sufficient tenure remaining in their current or future position to allow for the application of course material upon their return. Although the course targets law enforcement personnel; fire service and emergency medical services personnel will benefit by attending.
