

"The Greatest Love — And the Love You Live Out"

To the brave men and women who serve our city, Kansas City in law enforcement:

There is no greater love than the love of God. It is the love that created us, sustains us, and calls us to serve others with courage and compassion.

Scripture reminds us:

"Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends."
— John 15:13

Every day, you embody this kind of love.

You step into uncertainty so others can live in peace.

You run toward danger so others can find safety.

You carry burdens that many will never see, all because you care about the people you serve.

Your service is more than a job—it is an act of love.

It is love when you answer the call at 2 a.m.

It is love when you calm a frightened child.

It is love when you stand between harm and the innocent.

It is love when you choose integrity, patience, and restraint in moments that test the heart.

And God sees it.

He sees your sacrifices, your long hours, your quiet moments of strength.

He sees the weight you carry and the compassion you show. And He promises that your labor is not in vain.

"God is not unjust; He will not forget your work and the love you have shown Him as you have helped His people." — Hebrews 6:10

So be encouraged today.

You are not alone.

You are not unseen.

You are not without purpose.

May God's love surround you, steady you, and strengthen you. May His peace guard your heart. And may His presence remind you that every act of service—every call answered, every life protected—is a reflection of His love working through you.

Thank you for your courage.

Thank you for your sacrifice.

Thank you for your love in action.

Dr. Serita K. Wright - Chaplain KCPD
South Patrol Division