

This holiday season I pray you will be reminded of how incredibly grateful we are for your courage, sacrifice, and compassion towards the people in your sectors. While others celebrate in safety, it is because of your tenacity and steadfast service that peace and joy can continue to flourish in our communities. Throughout your shifts, I pray that you will experience moments of rest, warmth and gratitude, knowing that you are appreciated more than you may know that your work is honored and your commitment to "serve and protect" is never forgotten. Wishing you and your families a season filled with hope, strength and blessings!

Thank you for all you do!
